NORTH CAROLINA-STYLE BARBECUE

First of all, Barbecue is a noun. 'I'm fixin' to eat some barbecue,' or 'let's go to the barbecue this Saturday at the park' are what you would hear in Eastern NC.

The Spanish introduced pigs to the US in the 1500's by way of North Carolina and unlike cattle, pigs thrived in the Piedmont region of NC. By the 1600's North Carolinians had adopted the West Indies practice of cooking whole animals over wood coals. A few years later, vinegar was used to keep the meat safe to eat for as long as possible and just like that, the original barbecue was born in the Americas.

Around the 1920's, the first road side tents and shanty's were selling barbecue in and around the Wilson and Rocky Mount area. Bob Melton opened the first sit down barbecue restaurant in America in Rocky Mount. Within a few years, many other restaurants would open all around Eastern North Carolina with Wilson County being the epicenter.

We smoke our hogs Eastern North Carolina - style, low and slow for 14 hours over hardwood coals, infused with a vinegar sauce family recipe, then pulled and mixed together for an authentic experience.

OUR STORY

Wilson County Barbecue celebrates pit-smoked, whole hog barbecue done the old-fashioned way in a comfortable gathering place replete with Southern hospitality and unfussy charm.

Headed by native North Carolinian Spencer Brantley, Wilson County Barbecue's soul is born of a barbecue tradition hundreds of years old and passed down through family. It's a sub-regional tradition anchored around the wood-fired, pit-smoked whole pig, and in the convivial experience of sharing slow-crafted food and drink with friends and neighbors. Wilson County Barbecue is a beacon for the best authentic Eastern North Carolina Barbecue, and for good times day and night.
